

FROM THE DESK OF

Santa Claus

My Dearest [REDACTED] – Life has thrown so much at you in so little time but all seems to be unraveling nicely. You have managed to share the love and support to your wonderful children in so many ways. You have shared with them the joy that only a few receive and have instilled in them the values and principles that will help them throughout their lives.

You have provided a positive impact to so many as I requested long ago, your children now will carry that same tradition. Your gift now is to guide them to make a difference in the lives of others. It is time for them to become safe and strong on their own, and to utilize those strengths to impact the world around them in a positive manner.

With the passing of so many, the angels are all around providing guidance and protection for you and your children. You have carried out God's gift to so many, now your children will do the same, the spirit of Christmas and Santa carries on through all of their good doings all year round.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have blossomed and grown, they are on a path to positively impact so many. Guide them and give them the tools they need to make a difference, to help others, and to give back in a positive manner every day of every year.

God Bless you my child, with the strength and love you have in your heart so many will prosper as you pass that same fortitude to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]
